

What surprised you about giving your own talk?

5100 | W23

Time is very quick

How scared I was Nothing much

Being the first one to talk!

Audience response

Nervousness

how easy it was to speak

No one cares

Time was too low...

What surprised you about giving your own talk?

5100 | W23

That I had found my hidden talent.

People were actually listening

That I could complete within the time constraint forgot to take my mask off :'( fear of stage fear that i have

How easy it was once started

Nothing

Hesitation

The shear size of the room

What surprised you about giving your own talk?

5100 | W23

I was confident more than enough

confidence

It finished a lot quicker than I expected.

my friend didnt take my video well

I can speak in public missing flow

That I could speak really well in front of a huge crowd

Its surprisingly not that hard that I did it

What surprised you about giving your own talk?

5100 | W23

How I was forgetting the things I had rehearsed

Less nervous

How calm I was in front of audience and I didn't have fear of spotlight

Stage fear do exists speech delivery

hearing my voice in speakers

No one cares

Not that scary after starting

I have completed my talk without any pause

What surprised you about giving your own talk?

5100 | W23

there was nothing surprising. I was excellent like always delivery, audience response

1 min is too less

I wasn't as anxious as I thought I would be

I didn't say what I thought of speaking.

taking infront of such a big crowd

What happened to you!!??

After first line, the anxiety of speaking goes away

No one cared.

What surprised you about giving your own talk?

5100 | W23

Jitters before the talk and confidence during it

I was surprised to see that i was blank for a moment and i was really nervous

confidence

It is not the audience that matters, it's all about expressing the deepest thoughts with conviction.

Zero anxiety once I started speaking

Scenario

got anxious before it

Due to nervousness, I forgot some of the important parts of the story

I was very confident before the talk, got super nervous when I went on stage

What surprised you about giving your own talk?

5100 | W23

Mind goes blank

no hiccups

I realised i can actually speak in front of a crowd

I did fairly better than what I expected talking in front of many students bcoz i had never done that Seeing people being considerate and not making fun of the people who were talking.

Less scary than I thought.

Confidence

Audience was global. So was wondering whether the message will be relevant to them or not.

What surprised you about giving your own talk?

5100 | W23

Public speaking is never easy and everyone is scared to speak in front of an audience.

How long 1 minute is Confidence builds after a few seconds of talking

Unique experience,

Even after speaking on stage for many years, I still feel nervous speaking in front of audience have the courage

maa ka bhosdaa

Known more about myself

I had the potential to deliver a speech in front of so many people.

What surprised you about giving your own talk?

5100 | W23

Before and after the talk i was really nervous but during the talk, i felt free.

confidences after first 10 sec

I was really nervous but as soon as I came on stage to talk I could control my nervousness and speak confidently. I thought I won't be that confident.

I was surprised to realize that I still have some amount of fear to give a public talk after I have given countless speeches by now audience expression

I have stage fear

Lots of heads are looking at me. that's made me nervous.

Felt too anxious earlier, but was surprised that It wasn't that bad!

Fear

What surprised you about giving your own talk?

5100 | W23

I never gave a speech in front of class it was my first experience liked it was nervous but ended up well

People were trying their best to understand me and also trying to calm me down before my talk.

I had made a great effort to give my best a very new perspective of delivering the content to audience

Tripod mic

Miracles happen

supportive audience

I was astonished by the audience patience and the interest that they have shown. Also I felt confident.

Still have to go long way for perfection

What surprised you about giving your own talk?

5100 | W23

I spoke different content from what I had prepared.

Taking the center stage and actually able to completely deliver the speech

How bad i sounded with a mic

Eager audience

Before starting the talk I had multiple thoughts going on in my mind. But as my talk started I just went seamlessly.

That I can speak in front of such large audience

I forgot the opening sentence when that system buzzed.

i am awesome

How short and how how long a minute can be

What surprised you about giving your own talk?

5100 | W23

You can be a good speaker and still f up.

Shouting Jai Shree ram

Aundience

It was like pushing myself to different limit. I was able to gain more confidence. What matters is non-verbal aspect more than verbal ones.

My efforts to give the best to talk with interest and excitement

Hand gestures

Getting sweat in this cold weather

Improv:)

NOT GIVING A F

What surprised you about giving your own talk?

5100 | W23

Adding humour

Confidence

A catchy opening.

Taking deep breath or having a sip of water

i had no idea because i got stuck being casual

Flow of the talking

Using the stage properly

surprise element

What surprised you about giving your own talk?

5100 | W23

they remembered to take their mask off

Calmness

Not over doing

Use more space while talking

Spontaneity

Catching attention

Putting in some humor

Caring less about others.

Making the audience laugh

What surprised you about giving your own talk?

5100 | W23

Using the entirety of stage area

Enunciation on some particular words to get attention from crowd

Add hu · mor

Adding humour in talk

Speaking Confidently which I never did it

Looking at everyone

What's a best practice you noticed in others doing their talk?

Sarcasm

Confidence

Standup

Audience Engagement

Articulation

Engaging with the crowd

voice modulation

Good ending

Speaking louder

What's a best practice you noticed in others doing their talk?

Gaining Attention by some means.

Consistency...

Opening was gripping.

User engagement

Prepare for the speech and remain calm

Being confident is the key

Captivating but unpredictable story

Listen carefully

Walking around while talking

What's a best practice you noticed in others doing their talk?

Some of them used the stage properly!

Not nervous

Punch lines

High and low pitch and hand movement

beginning hook

Detailed explanation

body language

Planning their talk

Interacting with audience

What's a best practice you noticed in others doing their talk?

Deep breaths before the talk& looking at your audience eye to eye

Speak about something that people can relate to Firmness in their voices

Being connected to audiences

nil

Using hand gestures

try to make audience laugh

Controlled breathing

nothing

What's a best practice you noticed in others doing their talk?

Scanning the entire room.

Audience engagement

Speaking with confidence and in a stable flow.

Nothing interesting!

Opening sentence and the flow of speaking

Interesting opening statements

Walking and high and perfect pitch using good vocab

Engage with the audience

What's a best practice you noticed in others doing their talk?

moving around the stage and meeting eyes with the audience

Holding a mic a little closer to your mouth.

loud voice, interesting questions

Reading the crowd

Everyone is nervous. Some hide it well

Add some humour to the talk

Some of them delivered sarcasm perfectly!

A few people were actually able to grab attention.

new content and why i am not able to think in that way

What's a best practice you noticed in others doing their talk?

Accent ke chode

They were expressing very well

Be confident

They had better friends to take their videos while they were talking

Using space properly

Ending

Being or atleast acting confident.

1) Intonations, 2) Not looking at one point grabbing the attention

What's a best practice you noticed in others doing their talk?

Accent boys in the house say Hll

Body language and pace of speaking

Building up interest first and then being at ease

Perfect opening

Accent boy in the house

Using space properly

Deep breath

infinite